Arbor Decoration

In addition to temporary holiday decorations approved in our Bylaws, one object may be attached to the arbor year-round. It must be flat and no larger than 24" x 12". It must be attached securely using zip ties. No screws, nails, etc. can be used. The object may be decorative or bear the family name. No other words, slogans, etc. can be used. Further to recommendations by the manufacturer, no flowerpots may be attached.

The owner will be responsible for expenses incurred to repair and/or replace the arbor for any damage caused by the decoration including (but not restricted to) chipping, staining, wind damage, etc.

Bylaw XI 62 (b) (xxxiv)

Flag

With written permission from the Board, a flag with a maximum size of 12"x24" on a flag pole no longer than 40" can be installed on the arbor in lieu of a decoration as set out in the Rule on Arbor Decoration.

Front entrance/walkway

Only standard patio furniture and planters may be placed in the patio area in front of the windows. Objects should not obstruct the sidewalk between the driveway and the front door. This will help maintain a pleasant, consistent aspect of the street facing area.
